MSP CONGRATULATES FIRST MINISTERS 'FIRST MENTEE' CHARLOTTE LIDDELL

Local MSP David Torrance highlighted Charlotte Liddell's success of being selected as Nicola Sturgeons mentee with the submission of a motion celebrating her amazing achievement.

The First Mentor competition was run by Young Scot and offered young women aged between 18 and 23 the chance to be mentored by First Minister Nicola Sturgeon. Charlotte Liddell beat off competition from over 200 other hopeful applicants to be chosen as the successful candidate, and will now embark upon the incredible one-year program as Nicola Sturgeon's mentee.

Commenting David Torrance MSP said;

"I am delighted Charlotte's hard work and passion for her community has been recognised. To have the opportunity to gain practical advice, encouragement and support from the First Minister of Scotland will be a life changing experience for her.

"I hope this program inspires others in leadership roles to consider becoming a mentor, to encourage and inspire young people and participate in helping to build the next generation of positive role models in Scotland.

"I wish Charlotte the best of luck with the program and I look forward to watching her continued success in the future."
